TIMELY TOPICS AT COUNTY COUNCIL

Plover and Bremner Hold Interest of Club Women With Good Talks.

The meeting of the County Council comprising the Women's Clubs of Sonoma County which was held at the local club house last Saturday was not largely attended but what it lacked in numbers it made up in enthusiasm. Many of the clubs sent in written reports but Petaluma was well represented by a number of the leading clubwomen and they were hospitably entertained. After the reading of reports and the transaction of routine business the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club provided a dainty luncheon which was served at small tables in the club parlors and proved most enjoyable. The afternoon session was given over to the election of officers, the naming of Petaluma as the next meeting place and the addresses of John Plover on Red Cross work and of O. E. Bremner on food and war.

Mr. Plover was listened to with marked attention as he traced the history and growth of the Red Cross organization at Geneva and the taking of the Swiss insignia up to the present exigency. He referred to the Sanitary Commission of the U. S. which existed prior to the Red Cross incorporation in 1905 during the administration of Wm. H. Taft. He emphasized the fact that the accounts of the Red Cross are audited by the Secretary of War and that it is the only volunteer organization recognized by the United States. The great humanitarian work done in fires, floods, earthquakes and in the field of tuberculosis was pointed out. Mr. Plover made thestatement that the care of the dependents of soldiers was handled by the Red Cross not as a charity but as a matter of right and justice.

He dwelt on the necessity of enlisting the interest of all men and women in the great base hospital planned for the coast and told what good would come from a big membership which at the present time does not compare favorably with the membership of such countries as Japan.

At the conclusion of his able speech in behalf of the splendid humanitarian work membership blanks were distributed.

O. E. Bremner gave a very interesting and timely talk on the food situation. He advocated more production and conservation. "Speed up production" was the advice given. He advised the planting of back door gardens, the keeping of chickens and the utilization of idle land. He predicted that prices would not be less in two or three years.

Mr. Bremner appealed for aid in the matter of eliminating weeds and how the awakening of responsibility in the matter would make better and bigger crops.

The topics covered so ably by Horticultural Commissioner Brem-ner made a distinct impression on the club ladies present who roundly applauded his excellent advice on the food problem.

Two piano numbers by Miss Dresel whose technique and shading showed her to be a true artist were greatly enjoyed.

The officers elected for th ensuing year to serve on the County Coupcil are as follows:

President, Mrs. Carrie Bulingame of Sonoma.

Vice-President, Mrs. I. E. Shaw of Cloverdale.

Secretary, Mrs. Wagnon, Sonoma.

Treasurer, Mrs. Dave Lasar of Petaluma.

CELEBRATION GETS HEARTY SUPPORT

Big Delegation Here Wednesday Headed by M. E. Cummings Queen Contest Progress.

Wednesday Sonoma Valley was honored by the presence of a big representative delegation from the Healdsburg Chamber of Commerce who headed by M. F. Cummings came down to offer their aid in the big celebration next month. The gentlemen were met by a reception committee consisting of Frank Sprague, Sam Lewis, Will Kearney, Thos. Baines, Henry Bates, Dr. Parramore, and Jas. Baines and tendered a dinner at Boyes Springs by the Celebration Committee.

The dinner was entirely informal and characterized by good fellowship and a spirit of camaradie.

Upon the arrival of the evening train the party including the genial Healdsburg guests gathered at the depot to welcome Harold Duffy and his bride after which they paraded to the hotel where a fine dinner was served.

At 8:30 the Healdsburgers came down here to meet with the celebration committee and were given a a hearty ovation.

Mr. Cummings tendered the good offices of the Healdsburg chamber of commerce to Sonoma and assured those present that they would cooperate in every way possible with our committees to make June 14, 15 and 16 memorable days.

Julius Alexander also spoke and offered the help of Healdsburg's people in any way suggested.

H. B. Rosenberg was another visiting speaker who was much applauded.

For the El Verano Development Association, Tom Baines addressed the meeting and paid glowing tribute to attorney Frank Sprague's efforts in behalf of the bridge project. He suggested that Sprague be made the speaker to represent the Development Association on the day of the bridge dedication by Governor Stephens. The names of Mr. Cummings to represent the Healdsburg Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Sprague the El Verano organization were formally suggested but not acted upon owing to the lateness of the hour. The meeting adjourned with a rising vote of thanks to the good boosters from Healdsburg who came so far on the generous mission of aiding Sonoma Valley's celebration. The following were present at the Boyes Springs dinner;

A. M. Thomson, S. B. Lewis, E. L. Parramore, M. E. Cummings, Bert Haight, H. F. Bates, H. J. Duffy and bride, Col. M. W. Brady, Jas. Baines, Wm. Hill, Fred G. Lemmon, Harold B. Rosenberg, E. D. Phillips, J. A. McMinn, Julius M. Alexander, W. J. Kearney, T. H. Baines, Geo. W. Hayes, S. Hilgerloh and Frank Sprague.

AGUA CALIENTE SPRINGS OPENING

All those who attended the opening of Agua Caliente Springs Hotel last Saturday night had a royal time.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards are always genial host and hostess and they are preparing for a big rush this season. No more modern hotel can be found north of San Francisco.

JOHN PARAIZZO MEETS WITH ACCIDENT ON HALL RANCH

While breaking up clods in the Hall orchard with a drag to which was hitched a team, John Paraizzo had the misfortune Thursday to have the horses run away and injure him severely. The team took fright, threw the unfortunate man to the ground and in their mad flight ran over him. He was picked up and rushed to medical aid, Dr. Gobar discovering a larcarated scalp and an injury to his foot. Several stitches were taken but an X-ray examination revealed no broken bones.

About this time the committee took full control.

T. H. BAINES,
Secretary.

With the realization of the ambition of Sonoma Valley's loyal and progressive citizens to get the long desired route from Napa and Sonoma counties direct to San Francisco via Black Point and the completion of the magnificient road project which includes the $90,000 bridge spanning the river connecting the Marin and Sonoma shores with State Highway, it is of particular interest to review the minutes of the El Verano Development Association during 1913

Then and there within the walls of the meeting place of this far-seeing and active organization was projected the plans whereby Sonoma Valley enters upon a new era of development. In chronological order the story is told from the time of the introduction of the first resolution up to the time the plan became of such tremendous and momentous proportion that its destiny came into the keeping of the State Highway Commission and the Boards of Supervisors of three counties.

Never at any time did the interest of the original promoters flag and the indefatiguable work of securing rights of way and funds to further the project may never be recited, the broad-minded and public spirited men asking no glory other than the present realization of their fondest hopes.

The long, arduous trips and the conferences with men in high places, the overcoming of seeming unsurmountable obstacles and the expenditure of their own money to further this laudable undertaking are all a matter of history. The first great whirlwind campaign of motorists which invaded two county seats and held council with two Boards of Supervisors all in one day was participated in by a memorable contingent of our citizens to whom the community must ever acknowledge its deepest gratitude. It would be idle to mention individuals names in the great and successful campaign. The roll of honor is too well known. The minutes of the El Verano Development Association however tells of some of those who blazed the trail and made possible Sonoma Valley's celebration next month in honor of the completion of the Sonoma Cut-off.

APPOINT MILITARY REGISTRARS HERE

In order to facilitate the enrollment of all citizens of military age (21-30 years) registrars are being appointed in the various precincts of Sonoma Valley by the Council of Defense. Those named for Sonoma are said to be Jack Picetti, Theo. Kiser, "Pop" Hibbard, F. Sprague, A. L. Wells. After the registration medical examination will begin.

Dr. Thomson is appointing physicians in the county for medical auxiliary defense.

Mrs. Philip Bill entertained a number of lady friends most pleasantly on Wednesday in honor of her birthday.

Joe Ryan and the local racing contigent went to Dixon Saturday last. Joe boosted the celebration among leading horsemen in good style.

Mrs. F. Matysuama has suggested a fine float "The World" for the celebration parade. It may be carried out by the committee.

Grace Brothers are to erect a large hay barn on their ranch near here.

The bal masque given at the Grammar School Auditorium Thursday evening was participated in by about 100 students and the various costumes were most attractive. It was a novel and delightful affair.

John Mohr, the genial picture show man, visited Dixon last week with the Sonoma racing contingent.

Mr. and Mrs. Burmeister and family motored to Calistoga Sunday.

The Queen Contest

The contest for queen of the celebration was given great impetus last night at the Womans Club ball, the proceeds of which went to the Parade committee. Each one who attended voted for their favorite young lady and as a result, a big vote was rolled up. Those in the contest are Misses Eleanor Kehoe, Gertrude Breitenbach, Henrietta Webber, Anita Gassner, Nora Mullen, Norma Hansen, Mildred Ranker, Dorothy Dobble, Marie Helberg, Matilda Baccala, Louise Batto, Verginia Picetti, Doris Bluxome, Helen Kerner, Ethel Gericke and Miss Steurmer.

The ball was a grand success and the music by Prof. Hansen excellent.

The first official count of votes for queen will be made Wednesday evening next. The polling places are Simmon's Drug Store, Joe Ryan's, Mullen' Store, Ammann's El Verano, Ringressy's, Fetters and Koenig's Boyes Springs.

A SUCCESSFUL FARMER

L. . Cordill, leasee of the municipal sewer farm, has demonstrated what he can do as a farmer on his own place south of town.

Mr. Cordill has already started to pick six acres of peas and has a fair crop. He will dig early potatoes about June first.

Thirty five acres of his place are in barley with prospects of a valuable crop. He will later plant and irrigate a big acreage of white beans.

He has already sold his tomato crop to the Sonoma Valley Cannery for $10.00 per ton. He has twenty-five acres in tomatoes.

Quaker medicine show is coming to the Don Theatre next week.

MINSTRELS SCORE ANOTHER HIT

The Minstrel and Vaudeville Show given at Chauvet Hall, Glen Ellen on last Saturday evening by the Sonoma Valley talent for the Jack London Memorial was a success from every point of view. Sonoma city was represented by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Peterson, the leading entertainers, Mrs. Ramona Granice Lynch, Sonoma's little favorite, Mr. Heinie Weber and Miss D. Macfarlane, whose personalities made a "hit." The Misses Gertrude, Dorelis and Dorothy Breitenbach, "three bright stars" who did their part, believe me. Messrs Ralph Hotz, Russel Prestwood, Hal Hotz and Miss Pommeroy all were recipients of many encores. Schellville may feel proud of genial Bill Helberg who had the audience laughing "Constantly" and Miss Marie Helberg, Zolita Bates and Marie Minkel who kept their side of the show moving.

Miss Myrtle Hardy one of Vinegurg's charming native daughters and Mr. Harry Schmidesenkampf a master violinist of rare ability held Vineburg in the front rank and Jim Small that somewhat "easy minstrel upheld the honor of Battos Spur So the Valley of the Moon was well represented while Merle Bish, the jovial mayor of Madrone told the audience all about his old friend John Brown.

Fred Hansen's was the best black face comedian act ever seen on a local stage.

Carl Baldesberger was never in better voice.

MRS. M'LENEHAN PASSES AWAY

As a result of an accident through a fall some time ago from which she never rallied Mrs. Wm. McLenehan died in Santa Rosa Monday. She was taken to the hospital there in the hopes of getting relief but owing to her advanced age little could be done for her.

Deceased leaves a husband who resides here and a daughter, Mrs. H. M. Platt of Oakland.

The funeral was held in Santa Rosa and the Rev. Peter Colvin spoke most beautifully of the splendid character of the deceased whose life was one of self-sacrifice and patience.

Sonoma friends are extending their deepest sympathies to Mr. McLenehan and to Mrs. Platt.

Miss Marion Fussel of Napa was married to Joseph M. Stall of the Square Deal Garage in Napa Monday last.

That New Summer Schedule

The new summer schedule on the Northwestern Pacific went into effect last Sunday and there is much protest from the patrons of the road and from the people on the rural delivery routes who get their mail later and who were none too well satisfied before. The local postmaster was enabled to do pretty well by them with the early morning train and routing his rural carriers by 10:30 but he is not contemplating bettering the service now that he is confronted with the late arrival of the morning train and the greater influx of summer visitors.

While it is true that the railroads have been harrassed and there may be some justice in their plea for consideration because of the necessity for retrenchment, it is too bad that it should be applicable to a little branch road like the Sonoma Valley branch which for years has put up with obsolete equipment and been satisfied with old coaches and a service which offset the cheap fare.

The new schedule shortening up the time between trains, necessitating earlier travel and cutting out the second train on Sundays is not fairto any of our people and least of all to the big investors in our resort properties and mineral springs. It puts them in competition with localities better favored with train service and despite their fine accomodations, skilled catering and the Sonoma Valley's manifold natural attractions, it is a distinct disadvantage to their patronage.

We trust that Mr. J. J. Gearey and colleagues will lift the embargo and see that after all the good work on their part in the encouragement given the public to make this section their vacation ground and the incentive given to cater to Sonoma visitors it is hardly right to go backwards now.

We feel sure that the public will co-operate in any plan whereby the Northwestern can give us improved service. Let us have it even if the 8 hour law must react on the people's pocket books. We realize the inordinate demands of the employees for 8 hour work must work hardship somewhere and since there has been such a hue and cry for it and so much sentiment has been wrought up over it, there seems to be no excuse for the people not to taste of the fruits of their reform. Brotherhoods in labor circles preclude the traveling public and the patrons of roads. Unions are not concerned with anybody's welfare but their own. The present crisis in American affairs will show the fallacy of being idealists and nothing else. When the public begins to squeal, considerate legislators and the reform program takers will cease to be heroes and class legislation will be relegated to its proper place.

Stopping The Gouger In His Tracks

If there is a thoroughly despised agency in the United States today, it is the middleman and his method of doing business for to him is ascribed present serious conditions which confront us economically. If he is not guilty and there is a real shortage of products, if speeding up production is a matter of present necessity rather than a preparedness measure, he should vindicate himself from all blame.

If on the other hand the accepted story is true that business manipulators are at the throats of thrifty and willing Americans who are being throttled in their laudable efforts to follow out the administration program of increased production, the government should wrest the fingers of these despicables from their greedy grasp, and punish them with impunity

President Wilson presaged the necessity of dealing with this type of citizenship in his message and his call to the conscience and appeal to their honor being in vain, it must be the alternative course which will prevail.

The gouging middleman is no slacker. He has the additional distinction of being the true traitor by upsetting the international affairs of his country and paralyzing its efforts to speed up. Witness the predicament of the poultry producers of Petaluma, all loyal hard working, ambitious people anxious to do their best but at a standstill, facing sacrifice because of the intolerable conditions of high prices and prohibitive conditions which confront them. They must kill the hen which lays the golden egg because there is no feed for the hen.

The government is not unmindful of the acute situation and has already lifted the embargo on corn from the orient and is taking other measures to alleviate the situation.

Meanwhile the situation should be thoroughly gone over and the good people not become panicstricken and sacrifice their stock.

Public opinion is with the producer and thoroughly armed against the gouger for profit. We are all willing to be potential factors in food production and to work out the problemsof harvesting and kindred necessities. Uncle Sam will do the rest.

The hoe is successor to the bat, boys and clubmen take notice!

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy and we need sharp ones these days.

Hookworm and the 8 hour law never occur to the prohibitionist as contributing causes to shortage of harvest hands and other economic disturbances.

From 1907 to 1916, according to official reports, the total of county taxes levied in California increased from $22,145,000 to $47,054,399.69, or 112.48 per cent. In 1912-13 the county taxes levied were $34,678,185.84. The increase in this year was 56.59 per cent over 1917, and the increase in 1916 over 1912-13 amounted to 35.69 per cent. Between 1912 and 1916 the assessed value of non-operative property, against which these taxes are levied, increased a shade less than 18 per cent. America is the most prodigal nation in the world, so says William Jennings Bryan.

FORMER RESIDENT RETURNS TO FAMILIAR SCENES

John Dunbar, a resident of Sonoma in the sixties was here from San Luis Obispo Tuesday with his nephew Chas. O. Dunbar of Santa Rosa. The old pioneer was quick to recognize the place where he was born, the present Baccala Corner. The Dunbars are an old and prominent family of this section. Best known to the present generation is the genial Santa Rosa postmaster, Chas. O. Dunbar, formerly editor of the Press Democrat.

While here the San Luis Obispo visitor called on Mrs. J. A. Poppe and other old residents.

The Council of Defense has sanctioned the establishment of a Seed Distribution Bureau through the office of the County Horticultural Commissioner and the Sonoma County Development Association, Santa Rosa.

The object of this bureau is to connect up the man who wants seed with the man who has seed for sale. This not only includes seedmen and merchants dealing direct in seeds, but every farmer who has a surplus supply of seeds on hand. It matters not how great or how small this surplus supply may be. Even the listing of ten or twenty pounds of good seed will be appreciated.

To make this a success we must have the co-operation of every seedman and grower in the County, and it is hoped that they will at once send a list of their available supply, which would includ potatoes, grains and garden seeds unless samples are submitted.

Any grower wishing to purchase seed of any kind or description, who will send his inquiry to this office, will be directed to the nearest person having seed for sale.

O. C. Bremner, Horticultural Commissioner, Sonoma Co.

HAPPY COUPLE WERE WED

Nuptials of Miss Revie and Corporal Rockhold. Big Surprise to Sonoma Friends

The brief announcement in last week's issue that Miss Arvilla C. Revie had become the bride of H. W. Rockhold of Sacramento Thursday created a ripple of pleasant surprise among the many friends of the bride in this valley. Miss Revie resigned her position as head operator of the Petaluma Telephone Exchange last week and came home quietly to perpare for the wedding. She surprised her folks with the happy announcemnt that the plans of herself and fiance had all been made for a quiet wedding at the state capitol and her mother Mrs. Susie Cheney Revie accompanied her to Sacramento where the ceremony was performed.

The bride is the grand-daughter of the late Arvilla McHarvey for whom she was named. She is a bright girl who has made a decided success in the busines world.

Mr. Rockhold is highly spoken of as the following clipping from a Petaluma paper goes to show.

A quiet wedding took place at Sacramento Thursday when Corporal H. W. Rockhold, U. S. A. who is in the recruiting service and who has been in this city for some weeks, claimed as his bride, Miss Arvilla C. Revie who for many months has been filling a position at the telephone exchange in this city and whose home is in Sonoma.

The young people met in this city some weeks ago and it was a case of love at first sight.

Miss Revie resigned her position several days ago and left for Sonoma and said nothing of her plans to wed. From Sonoma she went to Sacramento, to which city Mr. Rockhold has been sent on recruiting duty. He is a splendid young man, whose home is in the south and who has been for seven years in the army. He is making a splendid record and has been out on detached recruiting for many months, often for weeks away from headquarters. His work here speaks for itself and he is the organizer of the Home Guard in this city and is very popular here.

The bride is a very charming young lady and is a member of a well known family of Sonoma Valley. Their plans for the future are not known.

Corporal Rockhold and bride will be wished every happiness by their many friends in this city.

The young couple are residing in Sacramento.

NOTICE TO PREPARE FOR MILITARY REGISTRATION

In antieipation of the President's Proclamation, when the time for military registration will be short, all men within the military age limit should be alert to respond to the notice for such registration, on the day named by the President, and at places to be named by the County Council of Defense.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to forewarn all males within military age limit to comply with the President's Proclamation in order that they may not suffer penalty for failure to do so.

The question of personal fitness is not a subject for decision by persons within age limit; that being a matter to be determined by examining surgeon later.

Such notice requiring registration will be given by proclamation through the public prints and no person can safely rely on personal notice. Such personal notice will not be given.

Those failing to inform themselves, or respond to notice for registration, may expect to be dealt with later.

Matters of importance not herein given may appear in the President's Proclamation.

The Council of Defense and each and every member thereof is absolutely without power or authority to excuse any person included within the ages covered by the President's Proclamation.

Dated this May 5th., 1917.

HOW TO DISPLAY OUR FLAG

In order to show patriotism fittingly and to indicate unanimous support of the President in his course in this great world war, the American flag is being displayed liberally throughout our city. Our flag, however, is more than a piece of bunting. It is an emblem of our government and its principles, and such an emblem our flag should be treated with due respect. As sometimes through carlessness our flag is handled without the respect which should be shown it, the following rules found in the Army and Navy Journal of April 14, 1917, are published for the information of all who display the flag.

1. Our flag should never be used as a cover for a table or desk or otherwise placed where any objects can be put upon it.

2. It should not be used to decorate a platform so that the speakers or those occupying the platform would be above the flag. If used about a platform it should be hung above the platform so that it would be above those occupying the platform. The flag must be above the man.

3. Our flag should never be draped or festooned, however attractively the colors may lend themselves to such an effect. If draping or festoon effects are desired they should be made with red white and blue bunting. When using bunting the red should be on top, the white should follow, and the blue should be below.

4. Of course every one knows that in flying our flag the union should be up. If our flag is not flown from a mast or staff it should be so hung that the union is to the north or east as the case may be; the union should not be to the west or south.

If the foregoing rules be observed our flag will be treated with the dignity and reverence to which it is entitld as the emblem of all those principles of liberty and justice upon which our governnment is founded.

Wm. Mullen, son of M. F. Mullen of El Verano who heads the employment department of the Union Iron works was in town Sunday and favored this office with a pleasant call. Mr. Mullen went fishing while here and landed a trout in Sonoma creek which dressed 4½ pounds.

U. S. MARINES HAVE HONORABLE CALLING

The nation's call for additional men for the Marine Corps, sailors and soldiers too, who for 140 years have slung their hammocks between decks on our ships of war, and afloat and ashore have won imperishable fame for gallant service, should be well answered in local circles.

Ever ready and ever loyal the Marines have proved to be in every war of the republic. A glorious history dating back to 1775 and a fervent esprit de corps mark this as one of the distinguished fighting organizations of the world. The smartness of dress and drill of these sailor-soldiers has always been the same on shore parades, going over the sides to the relief of imperiled Americans in the Orient, or landing with cartridge belts full to storm the snipers out of a hard-beset town in the Caribbean.

On board ship the Marines man a part of the battery guns. When there is landing work to do their bayonets lead the battalions. Though their drill grounds are often reeling decks, the Marines march with the precision of royal guardsman, and their uniforms, with the golden globe on their caps and the bright yellow chevrons and red trouser stripes, are indeed brilliant. Whenever our Naval pennants fly, the Marines go with them, around the globe. They are the sentinals of all our Navy Yards and Naval Stations. On each coast a large "advance base" force is maintained ready for any call anywhere over seas. Never did any service offer a spirited American lad a finer chance to serve his country. Uncle Sam's Marines in blue or white or khaki are conspicious among the thousand crew of every battleship. They watch the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard. They have "pacified" Nicaragua, have brought law and order to Santa Domingo, are serving as Officers of the Haitian Gendarmerie, which they organized, and distinguished themselves at Vera Cruz. They are flying aeroplanes at Naval Stations. They hold for Uncle Sam his remotest stations in the Phillipines and Hawaiian Islands and summer and winter keep a circle of steel around the legation in Peking, China.

Wherever the Marine bugles blow and their colors show, on land or sea there will be found the spirit of youthful adventure finely tempered by the tradition of country-old discipline. As the Corps emblem suggests, the whole world round is their scene of action. They are of all our men-at-arms distinctively Uncle Sam's ready men, his handy man; the first to be sent for wherever there is trouble over-seas, prepared to fight alike in steel turrets, or on open decks, over hot sand beaches, in black jungles ever alert to the clear notes of their duty-calls.

When in doubt as to where they can best serve their Flag and Country, let young men stout of heart, and stout of body, call at the Marine Corps Recruiting Station at 513½ 4th street, Santa Rosa California.

The glorious Corps demands and deserves its share of the first manhood of America.

REBEKAHS SCORE HIT WITH SHOW

Clever Production by Petaluma Talent Aids Local Lodge.

Verdant Degree Rebekah Lodge gave a highly successful entertainment last Friday evening for which the talent was donated by Petaluma. The clever company which produced "The Old Maid's Convention" scored a big hit and took the house with their many local joshes and hits on popular young men about town. The comical make- up of the old maids who recited their love experiences and the gumdrop episode of the play evoked great laughter and applause.

The Womans Club house was filled with spectators and it is estimated that over $40 was cleared by the lodge.

Dancing and refreshments followed the entertainment and all who attended had a fine time.

The Petalumans made the trip over in a big auto truck and were greeted by a geniakommittee of Sonoma Rebekahs who had our city illuminated in honor of the visitors and altogether made their stay a very enjoyable one.

HAROLD DUFFY TAKES BRIDE

Popular Boyes Springs Man and Miss Georgie Hobson are Wed.

Harold Duffy, the popular Boyes Springs Hotel man and Miss Georgie Hobson were quietly wed in San Rafael this week but the news of the wedding reached the Springs and a royal time awaited them upon their home coming to the big resort Thursday night. The demonstration led by Colonel Brady was joined in by the managements, guests of the hotel and by the Healdsburg Chamber of Commerce members, who happened to be banqueting there that night and joined festivities with the bridal party. After an impromptu parade to the hotel an elaborate dinner was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy were heartily felicitated.

Mr. Duffy whose home was formerly in San Rafael has made many friends since coming here and is known all over the coast by tourists and travelers.

His handsome bride has been making her home at the Springs for some time past and is a most estimable young woman.

VINEBURG

A full house was present at the moving pictures on last Tuesday evening and all who were present speak highly of Messrs Collins and Mohr's able management at Martin's pavilion

Mrs. Chas. McDevitt, of Sonoma, accompanied by her son Francis and daughter pretty Elizabeth were the guests of Mrs. F. Batto on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Fred Batto accompanied by her daughter Miss Emily were visitors at the metropolis on Tuesdday last.

Two carloads of choice California wine was shipped by the G. B. Wine Company to the French Colony of New Caledonia in the south seas, the consignment was transported on the steamer Ventura.

Mr. Ben Banchero, a prominent citizen of Contra Costa county accompanied by his sister Miss Mary Banchero and Mrs. August Figone and children of San Francisco were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Batto on last Sunday.

Messr. Chas. Groskopf, Albert Groskopf, Frank Groskopf, Louis Rouque, John Gross and Peter Bosch Jr., all well known citizens of Vineburg attended the Minstrel Show in Glen Ellen on last Saturday evening and all report a swell time.

J. Locarnini purchased a Ford last week in San Francisco and although he had never been at the wheel of one before, he piloted the machine safely to El Verano after the demonstrator took him as far as the suburbs of Sausalito. Locarnini proved "some" chaffeur and says the little Ford rambled right along.

SONOMA MEETS UKIAH TOMORROW

Tomorrow is the day the Sonoma ball team hopes to bring home the biggest scalp of the season when the boys meet Ukiah on the Mendocino city field. Last year Ukiah went down to defeat before the onslaught of the classy twilers from the Valley of the Moon and it was a victory that has not been forgotten.

Ukiah has been nursing a sore toe ever since and vowing to come back. Sonoma has been whetting up to cut in again and it is going to be "some" game.

The northern giants claim Sonoma's last year's victory was just a chance but our rooters will be there to tell 'em it is skill and science in Modini's and Dal Pogetto's players.

A bunch of fans and some of the team leave for Ukiah tonight tnd more will go up tomorrow. About fifty strong Sonoma will invade Ukiah. They will incidentally boost our celebration.

Following is the line-up:,

UKIAH		SONOMA
Van Dyke	Pitcher	Whitlow
Buchanan	Catcher	Stewart
Caughey	1st base	Evans
Mockler	2nd base	Dresel
Cox	Short stop	Palucci
H. Davidson	3rd base	Andrieux
Ruddick	Left field	Stuermer
C. Davidson	Center field	Hastings
Eilers	Right field	Stockwell
Ball and Maze	Extra	Prestwood

KENNELY SEALS 12 SONOMA 6

It was a case of too much Kenley seals on the local diamond last Sunday. After the first couple of innings there was no doubt who would come out on the long end of the score.

Whitlow had an off day and was bumped pretty regularly. This coupled with errors made Sonoma look very much off color.

When our boys are "right", which they promise to be from now on, there will be a closer battle with this fast team. Another game has been arranged with them, to take place in about a month. Manager Dal Pogetto is confident of bringing home the onions, which one can perceive by his broad grin when last Sunday's game is mentioned to him.

The outstanding feature of last Sunday's game was the sensational playing of Andrieux when he was switched to center field. Dutch grabbed everything near him and this move on the part of the management will greatly strenghen the team in defensive playing. Dutch is also glad to get back there and will never again stray from his native territory.

Sunday the boys will journey to Ukiah to play the champions of Mendocino County. Our team has been greatly strengthened and from the writer's viewpoint should have no trouble in winning.

Seven machines are making the trip and with this motley array of rooters on hand we will surly put "some jazz" in our hopefuls.
